Mobile Authentication Terms and Conditions

The OTP received by You has been triggered through Your telecom operator's portal and enables Us to access Your telecom account. You hereby agree to provide Us and our third party vendors, in the capacity of Your agent, an explicit consent to access Your telecom account in order to extract and verify Your Name, Address, Amount of bills paid by you, Activation date and Handset Details along with a few other ancillary details required for re-verification, profiling purposes or even to assist us with collections in the event of loan defaults or delays in repayments. By enabling access to Us, You also hereby irrevocably agree to be solely responsible for any claims, liabilities, penalties or suits raised due to Your sharing access to Your telecom account. Your data shall solely and securely only reside with Us and no third party vendors shall retain Your data beyond a pre-designated time.
